COMPUTERS UNLIMITED

[redacted]

Dear Mr[redacted]

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your order and acknowledge receipt of your payment. It will be despatched to you as soon as possible.

DID YOU KNOW?

Computers Unlimited can offer you an extensive range of services to help you get the best value from the products you have purchased.

Hotline Support

We offer a choice of Hotline Support contracts designed to assist you with technical knowledge and advice. By taking out a Hotline Plus contract for just £99 (Ex VAT) per annum, two users will gain unlimited access to support, 9.00 am to 6.00 pm Monday - Friday, with the chance to upgrade to Premier Support with 10% discount.

Training

When purchasing new products or upgrades, a training course is a must. It will not only provide full product knowledge, but will also enable you to utilise the more advanced, detailed features of your application. Our training centre provides a whole range of facilities, from introductory product training courses, Workshop days at only £99, through to specific advanced trainer/student education.
